

Effective November, 2011

PrinterOn Print Delivery Station (PDS) 2.6CO Release Notes

The PrinterOn Print Delivery Station is a software based solution that can be used to turn nearly any printer into a PrinterOn-enabled printer.

The following enhancements have been made in this version of the Print Delivery Station software.

- Improved support for proxy network configurations
- General enhancements to configuration file processing and stability

Please contact support@printeron.com if you have any questions.